

PHYSICS TUTORING for Hurricane Relief

The first round of 2305 and 2306 tests are coming!!!
Are you ready?!?

Want to do better on the next 2205 or 2206 test?
We can help!

Cost: $10/hour/person

Contact: sigmapisigma@phys.vt.edu

Please email us with the subject “Asking for a tutor.” Specify which course you want help with and a few time slots you would be available. We will reply to set up a time and a location for the tutoring. You will be tutored by a Virginia Tech Physics student.

All our income will be donated to the Red Cross for hurricane relief, or to local students whose families were affected by the hurricane.
